Hi Valois

Attached is the draft response to comments document for the Dewey-Burdock Project. It addresses 2017 and 2019 comments (about 10 pages are new comments raised in 2019; they are scattered throughout the document).

There are some highlighted questions in the attached. Most of these are to draw your attention to text that we developed on our own (i.e., not from the EPA documents) or to propose text that hopefully you agree with and won't require much work to add to the responses. We made a strong effort to ask the hardest questions along the way, and hopefully finishing this won't be too onerous.

We will continue to QA the table of comments and will deliver that soon.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
